New York-based soul singer, songwriter, and Broadway actress Morgan James has been heralded by The Wall Street Journal as "the most promising young vocalist to come along so far this century." Her latest full album "Nobody's Fool" is a luminous love letter to 90s R&B, featuring nine brand new songs, and one cover of Jeff Buckley's "Everybody Here Wants You;" the release of which culminated in a 60-city U.S. tour with her band. The album is James' third original soul album recorded at the world-class Memphis Magnetic Recording, along with "Memphis Magnetic," and "A Very Magnetic Christmas," both recorded live to analog tape.

Voctave is an 11-member a cappella group from the Central Florida area. Formed in the winter of 2015 by producer and arranger Jamey Ray, the voices that bring their artistic arrangements to life represent a wealth of diverse backgrounds and musical experiences. Voctave members have roots in musical theater, contemporary Christian music, barbershop, pop and choral music. Members of Voctave have performed all over the world and can be heard on countless recordings. The group has performed with Grammy, Dove and American Music Award winners. With multiple No. 1 songs and albums on iTunes, Amazon and Spotify, Voctave has also ranked in the top 25 on Billboard Magazine's charts. Voctave has received more than 150 million views on their videos. Voctave's albums are digitally available on all platforms.

Hendricks Civic Theatre presents The Sound of Music, the final collaboration between Rodgers & Hammerstein that was destined to become the world's most beloved musical. Featuring a trove of cherished songs, including "Climb Ev'ry Mountain," "My Favorite Things," "Do-Re-Mi," "Sixteen Going on Seventeen," and the title number, The Sound of Music won the hearts of audiences worldwide, earning five Tony Awards and five Oscars.
